Prof. John Fisher—Composition and World Literature

General education,
general courses—
difficult but stimulating.
Comprehensive
courses and professors—
Fisher, Hess,
Stoltzfus, Oyer—
intense and influential.
General courses,
generally difficult,
generally stimulating.
Required
but rewarding.

Prof. Stoltzfus—New Testament

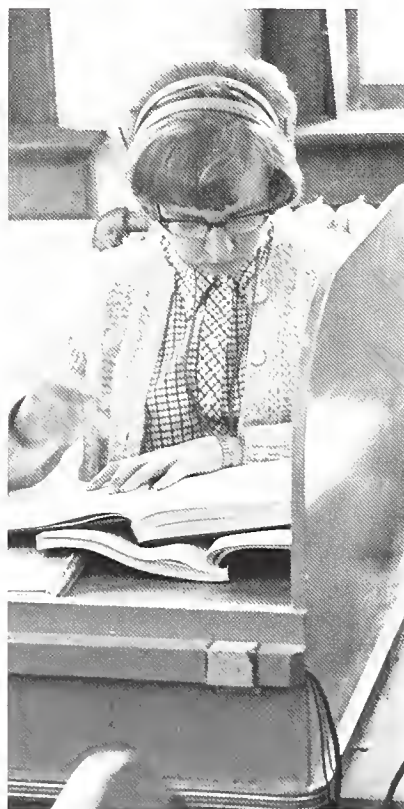

Prof. Davidsan—Speech Class

Prof. Hess and Bob Hastings, American Yearbook representative—Journalism Class.

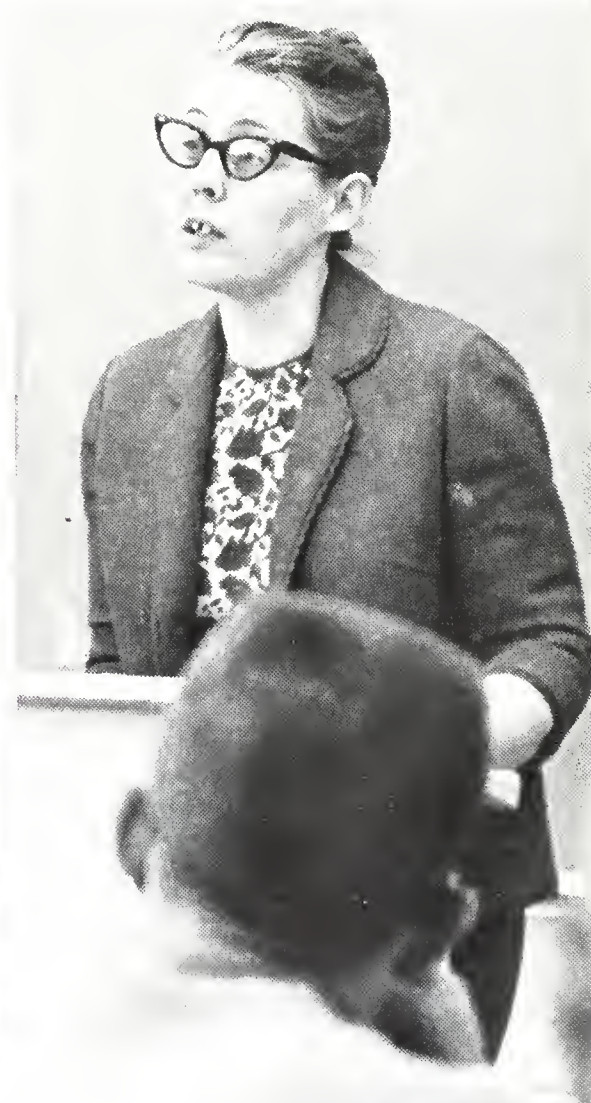

They ask:
Mr. Reimer asks,
"Wohin gehen Sie?"
We listen
and repeat.
Prof. Hess asks for good writing
"bristling with metaphor."
Prof. Hershberger asks for form, shape,
line
and answers with
"War-Bird."
Prof. Oyer asks,
"Isn't that curious?"
And we learn
to answer.

Prof. Ezra Hershberger and Lois Kauffman

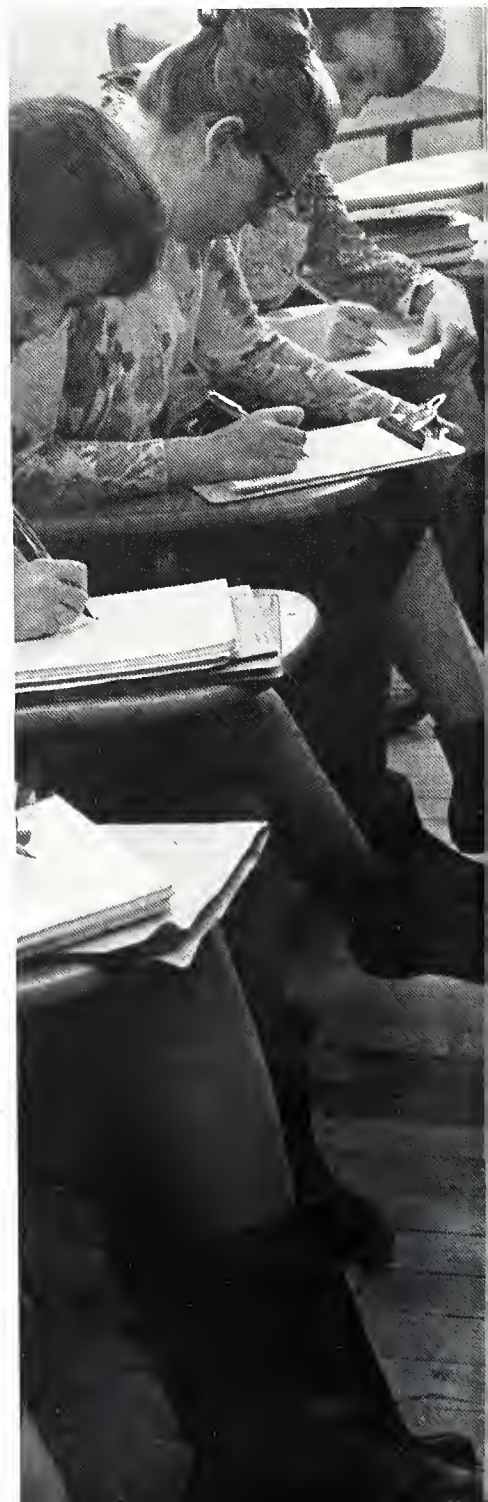

Prof. Oyer—Fine Arts Class

Phyllis Cummings

Discussions move
from classroom
to snack shop,
from situation ethics
to characteristics
of a good
marriage partner,
from Mennonites
in Elkhart County
to Mennonites in Brazil,
from desk
or table
to adding machine
or typewriter,
from Gospel Herald
editorials
to compulsory folk games.

Prof. Minnich—Rural Sociology

Prof. Leatherman—Political Parties

Jack Erb

Ramzi Farron

Prof. G. R. Miller

The sciences:
logical,
accurate,
and probing.

Answers:
in test tubes,
after-class discussions.

Answers:
new laboratory apparatus,
a glance into a microscope,
studying.

Answers:
a formula,
an equation,

Answers:
a chat with Prof. Miller
about people—

too many,
with Prof. Witmer
even about the weather.

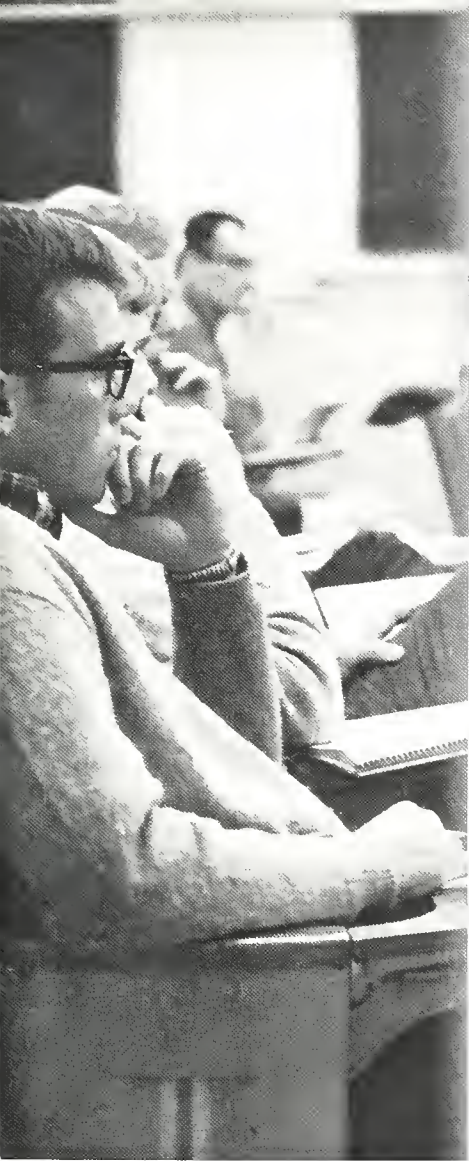

Answers:
logical and accurate.

Prof. Guy F. Hershberger--War, Peace, and Nonresistance

Responsibility: to examine attitudes—
ours,
yours,
theirs;
Socrates to Sartre;
Stoltzfus to Shenk.
To re-examine,
to respond,
to read and realize,
to reason,
to react,
to act.

Dwight King—Philosophy

Prof. Shenk—Old Testament

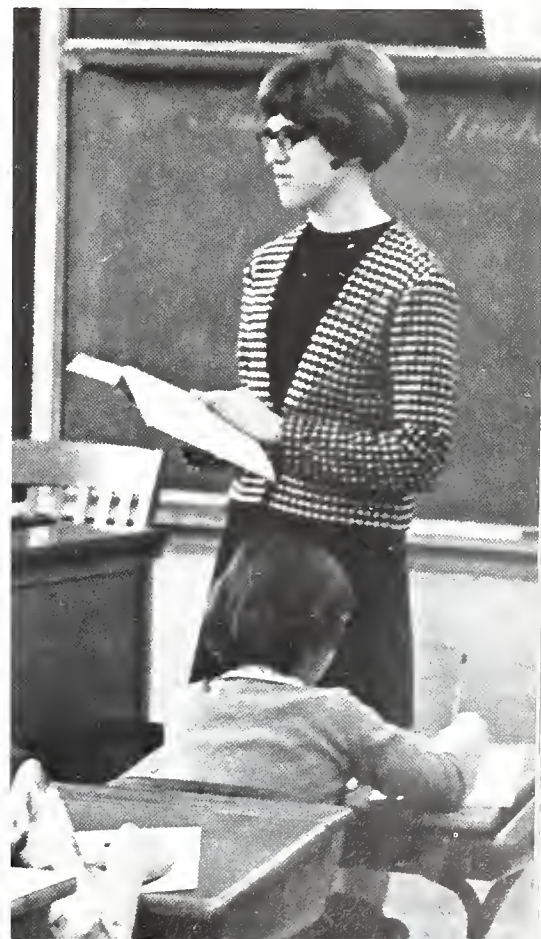

Edsel Widrick

We lost Prof. Massanari
to Washington, D.C.
but we carried on,
concerning ourselves with lesson plans—
English,
history,
science.
"What's that word, teacher?"
Jolene leans over
to answer.
"Are you coming out to play?"
"Jimmy knocked me down, teacher."
"I like you, teacher."
Edsel looks down
to notice.
We smile at the address—
"teacher."

Jolene Lichti

At 5:30 A.M. in uniform
we start smiling.
We smile at the
older patients,
amused
sometimes.
We smile when we remember
our first lesson:

feeding the patient.
We remember other lessons,
the Cheery Corner,
classes, instructors.
And when we take off the uniform
at the end of the day,
we can stop
smiling.

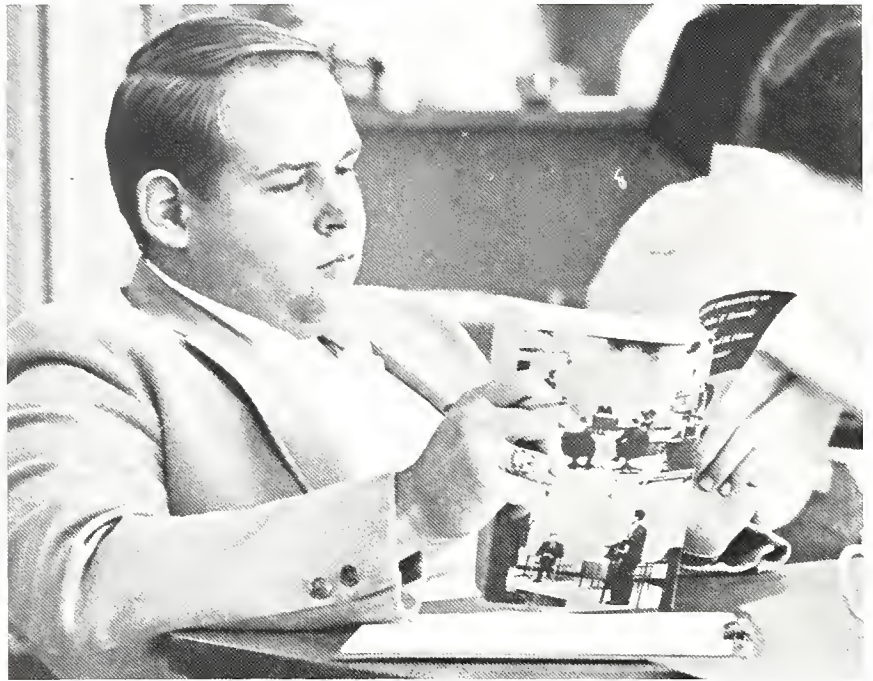

Janet Krapf and Diane Alderfer

Barb Fisher

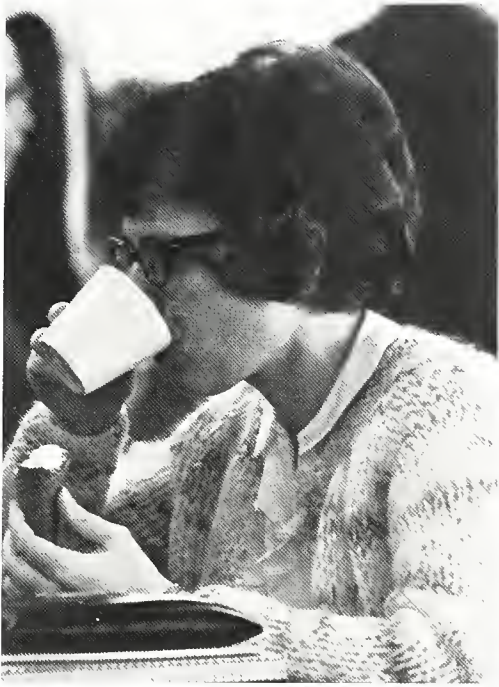

Prof. Masemann

Ted Larrison

It's a rut, man, a rut
 and it's getting to me,
 right to me.
 Walking to and from classes
 through rain, slush, snow,
 up and down
 the Ad Building stairs.
 To and from, up and down.
 Memorize, practice, cram.
 Read, read, read.
 Find a corner all alone:
 in the snack shop,
 in a practice room,
 or private lounge.
 Hit the books, man.
 A Christian Faith paper next week;
 an Econ quiz tomorrow;
 and Prof. Oyer says to know
 all the postcards by Tuesday:
 Rembrandt, Vermeer, Turner, Monet . . .
 Over and over, again and again.
 Memorize, practice, cram.
 Day Night day night dayni . . .

The library's the place to study,
 they say. So at dawn
 we begin to file in.
 We absorb,
 compare,
 examine.
 From the Odysey
 we look up to watch the filing
 in and out.
 We prepare.
 We review
 chapters, movies.
 We review
 newspapers, formulas.
 We review reviews.
 And when it's dark we go away
 to rest so we can begin again at dawn.

Definition of perpetual motion?
 Easy for us!
 PM = Pick a subject.
 Narrow it down,
 Bib cards.
 Reading.
 This source—good.
 This one? No go.
 Note cards-note cards-note cards.
 Write the first draft.
 Rewrite and rewrite.
 Type . . . Deadline!
 Whew! Relief!
 Until the next encounter—
 The mailbox and the grade!
 Relief?
 Elation?
 Dejection?
 But not for long . . . Soon it's Pick a subject, narrow it down . . .
 Perpetual motion = term papers.

Morning, evening, and night
the Arts Building issues music:
vocal, organ,
piano, violin,
cello.

Enjoyment.

Hard work.

Unending practice.

The climax of four years:

in big recital

in Assembly Hall.

Accomplishment.

Across campus . . .

Kulp basement,

Spouter basement.

More hard work.

Easels, oil paints, charcoal.

Inspiration.

Frustration.

Work and rework.

The longing to express.

The drive to create.

We see but the final product.

Union exhibitions.

John Gerber

Rev. Gerald Cobb

We'll remember this year
as the year the IBM card
invaded chapel
(only we called it convocation)
and the year required
attendance was cut back.
Wednesday and Friday
we made the trek
to the round building
filling the place
almost.
We sat quietly listening
or quietly dreaming
or quietly sleeping,
being careful all the while not to fold, spindle, or mutilate
the mellow yellow card,
for it was the key to returning.
Sam Steiner didn't comply.
He mutilated his card.
Sam Steiner didn't return.

Dick Miller and Pastor Bauman.

Dr. Evelyn Millis Duvall

Sen. Birch Bayh and Ralph Gunden

Dr. Vincent Harding

We listened outside convocation, listened while others discussed
their concerns,
their fears—
personal, national, international,
the old morality,
black power,
doves and hawks:
Duvall, Harding, Kauffman.
We sought understanding—
the path to self-awareness.
We wanted to respond,
to ask questions,
to reject, to affirm.

But more often
we didn't.
We went away to the security
of study,
classes,
routine.
We went into our shells
of intellectualism,
of rational thought.
And then in the middle of it all
we saw Harding;
we saw his pointing finger:
white middle-class Protestant,
You're scared, real scared.

Dr. Donald R. Jacobs

Ivan Kauffman, MCC

Dr. Paul Rees, World Vision; Pastor Bauman, Pres. Mininger

Chad Walsh

Phil Bender and Dr. George Schweitzer

"I have come here, knowing before I came How it would be . . .
I could do better if I felt more bleakly How damned they are. But . . .
They are so beautiful . . .
I do not think they will elect me King
But if they do, can I refuse to reign?"—Chad Walsh

Hans deBoer

Dr. Harold Cross

Richard Dyer-Bennet

Philharmonia Hungarica

We dressed up
to go out
to L-M's in the Union.
We tasted
Baroque music,
Beethoven on folk,
swinging Bach,
and comic Shakespeare.
We applauded
and asked for more—
more culture,
more stimulation,
more professionals.
But the house lights went on
and our night out
was over.

The Swingle Singers

Dr. Fran William Hall

John Adams and Prof. Marion Wenger

Prof. S. A. Yoder

Profs. Willard Smith and G. R. Miller

Prof. Albrecht

Profs assigned papers, reading.
They demanded work.
And we complained and complained and complained. Of course . . .
they were convenient for delivering the facts
or for answering questions about important decisions
or just for an intelligent,
experience-backed conversation.
Kind of human, those profs.
Unusual image for a prof—human.
But then no one's perfect.

Compus Life Advisory Council

John Liechty

Ernst Lichti

Jim Huebert and Mrs. Sandy Yoder

Virginia Claxton

The administration kept GC going this year as usual. They took our money, washed our dishes, filled our mailboxes, called us in, listened to our gripes, mowed the lawns, provided two more parking lots, reacted to Record, typed our tests, sent us statements, filled our stomachs, tolerated our pranks, clarified policies, and generally were the axis of the wheel.

Larry Augsburger

Marion Lehman—Seminary Fellowship.

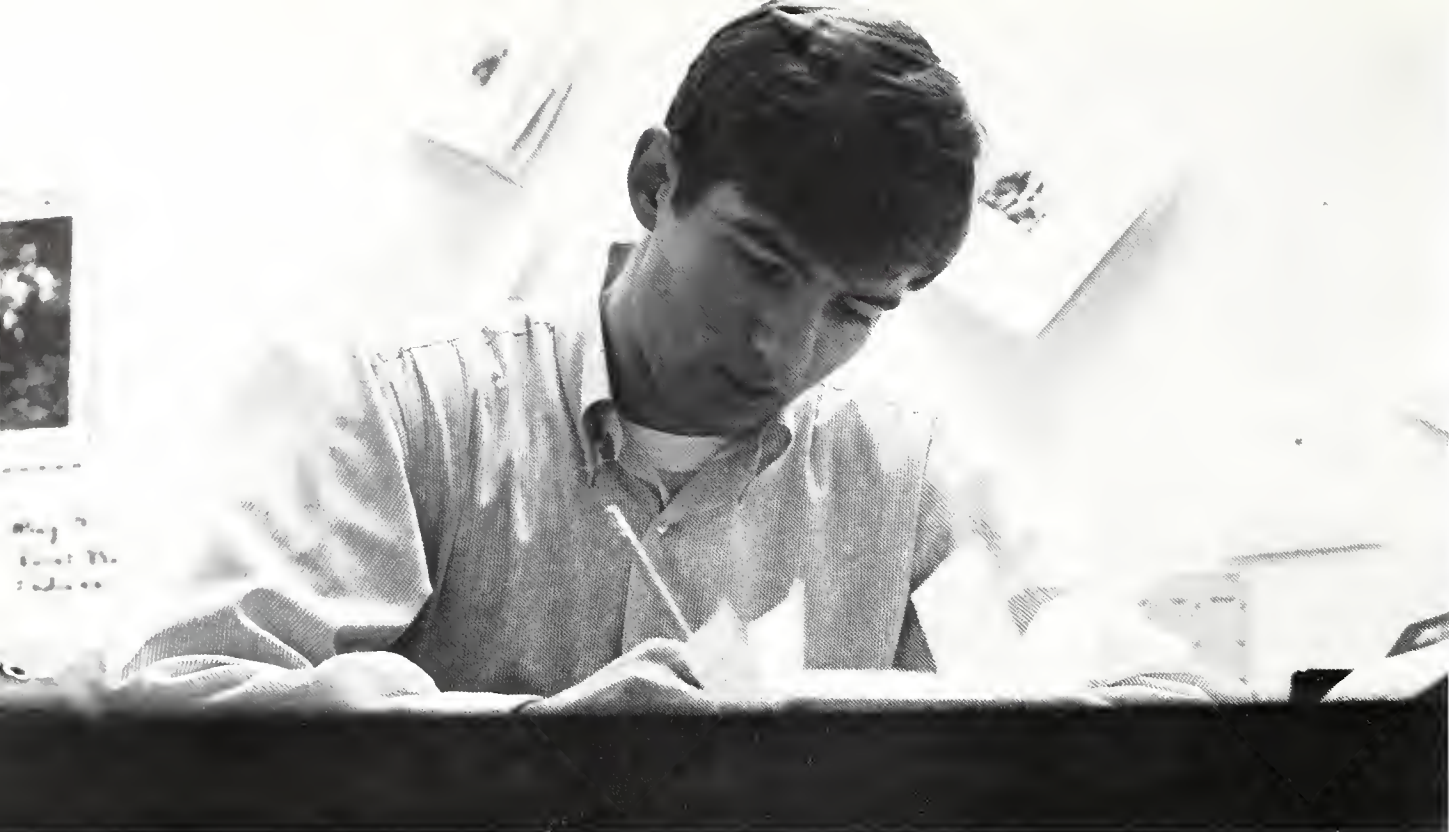

Notice the red brick building
straight ahead of us, please,
the one with the painted roof.
That's the Seminary.
Inside you'll find an assortment of studious people absorbed in Barth and Altizer and arguing about situation ethics and the death of God.
If you ever get the chance,
study the seminarians
because actually they're the closest Gashen College comes to real scholars.
But they're some of the most human people on campus.

GCCG is three years old.
 GCCG can do lots of stuff
 They can o.k. new clubs.
 They can discuss Celery (sic) Series bills.
 They can talk about juke boxes.
 They can talk about anything.
 They can even ask
 the President to do stuff.
 It took GCCG
 to get the library
 to open on Sunday afternoons.
 We like GCCG.

Titled spontaneity.
SCA. We made it
the unorganized organization.
The outgrowth of concern.
A search for meaning.
Koinonia group meetings—
interpersonal revelation, Christian fellowship in full.
The Lighthouse—a witness
among the other half.
Englewood—a weekend excursion
complete with cleaning, cooking,
fun and challenge.
Gospel teams—practicing, sharing.
Tutoring, MYF teams . . .
Rewording?
Ask those concerned enough to investigate. They know.

Gwen Widmer—Record

Reprints, retakes,
rewrites,
deadlines, headaches,
sore feet,
sore fingers,
soreheads—
we endured and conquered.

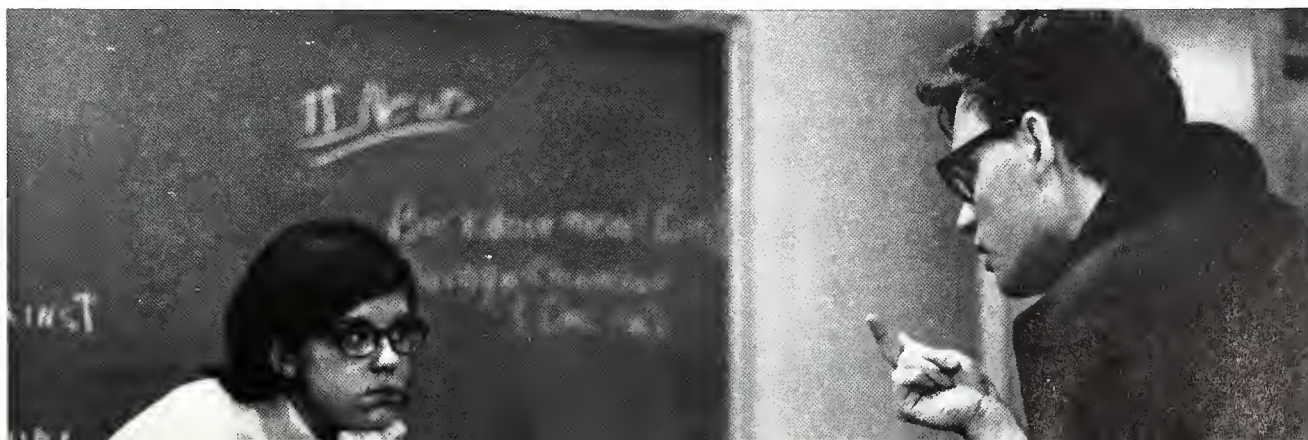

Why?

Money, credit, pull?

No.

Rather because Sara and Gwen thought GC needed
a bi-weekly mailbox duster
and perhaps a gadfly;
because Jim thought GC needed
memory pictures
and maybe exegesis.

Stan Smith—Ad Hoc Meeting

The face of student activities:
out of Peace Society grew Ad Hoc,
raised money for North Vietnam war victims and caused a furor

Prof. Falk—Chamber Choir

Music at Goshen? New?
Hardly! But changing always.
For the first time we mixed
student and faculty talent,
orchestra and chair music
and produced
Lon Sherer with
the Collegium Musicum.
And the nurses joined A Cappella
and Dwight Weldy on tour.
But that's not all.
The traditionals were back:
the orchestra in concert,
David Falk's Chamber Choir.
Goshen College ever singing?
Ballgames, chapel . . . and us.

Collegium Musicum

Prof. Weldy—A Cappella Choir

Eric Lehman

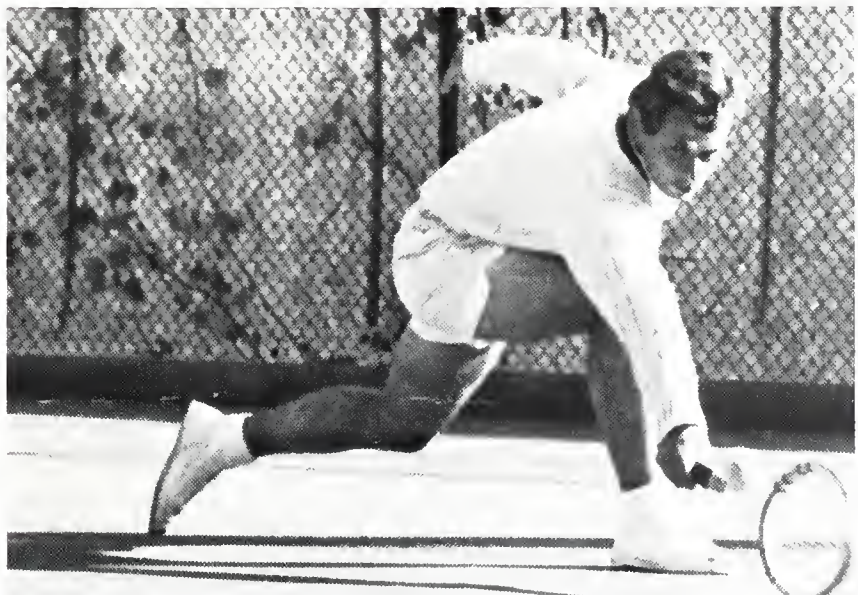

Fred Hostetler

A new nome
drifted in the air
early this year:
Roger Golden.
His sport—tennis.
He edged out
Fred Hostetler,
moved into number one spot.
A slow start for the team—
o loss to Taylor.
But then victory
over Indiana Centrol, Western Michigan Freshmen,
Concordia,
Bethel—
everything leading up to onother Taylor-GC contest.
Swishing serves,
powerful backhands,
strong overheads:
victory over Taylor, 5—4.

Roger Golden

Lynn Smith—Hesston game.

Without football to boost spirits
 GC latched onto soccer.
 We saw all the home games.
 We knew all about the players:
 style,
 personality,
 peculiarities.
 We had a poster contest.
 And we went wild in an excess of glorious ridiculousness.
 With each victory
 our heads swelled.
 WE were the greatest.
 OUR team was unbeatable.
 And so it went for almost a month:
 St. Francis, Hope, Indiana Tech;
 and in a sublimely played game
 we beat a great Notre Dame team.
 All we had to do now was conquer Hesston
 at Homecoming.

Jerry Troyer and Golen Yoder—Hesston.

Jerry Troyer

Mike Lambright—Hesston game

Cloudy, chilly, and windy,
 October 29, day of THE game.
 Several hundred fans tramped
 out to see the final touch.
 To our surprise, Hesstan scored a penalty kick
 and then scored again.
 And we began to worry.
 Second and third quarters
 slipped by with no change
 and we became desperate.
 Then suddenly there was Denny dribbling beautifully by Larks
 and blasting in a score.
 But when he was injured
 we thought we were lost.
 Five seconds—penalty—SCORE!
 Painful hope, only to lose quickly in avertime.
 Defeat was bitter.
 We rationalized for weeks.

Dwight Londis and Dave Minter

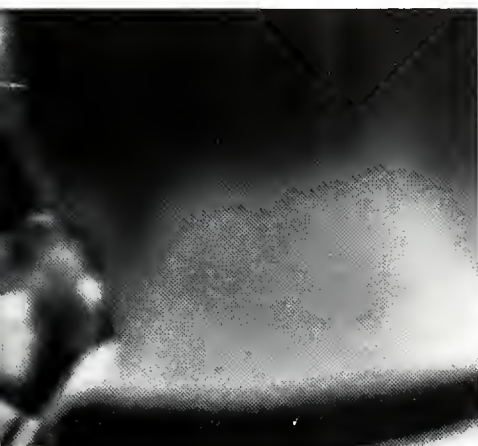

Ken Eigsti and John Frankenfield

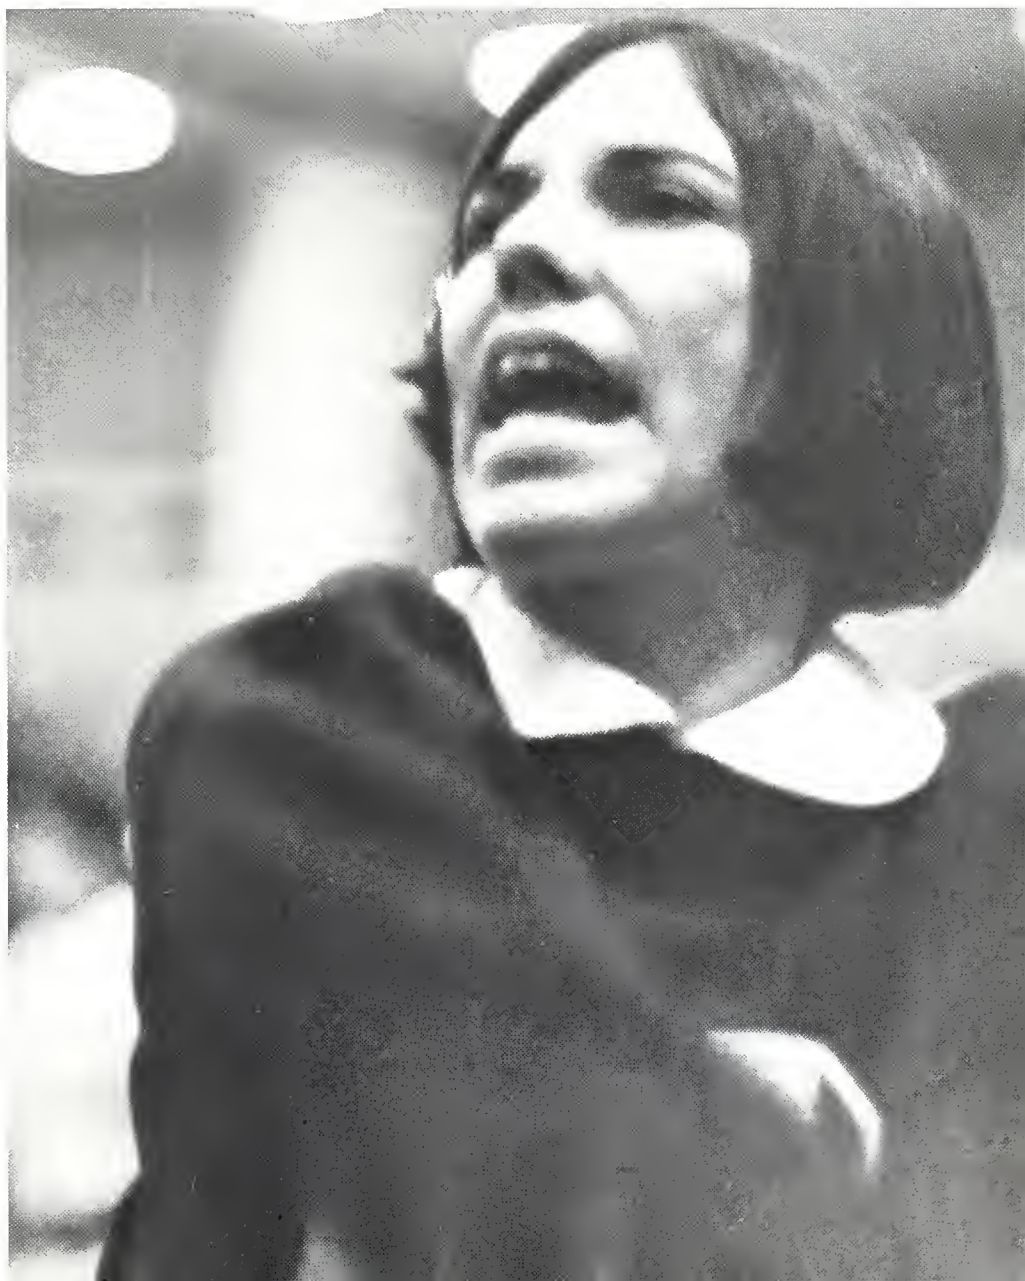

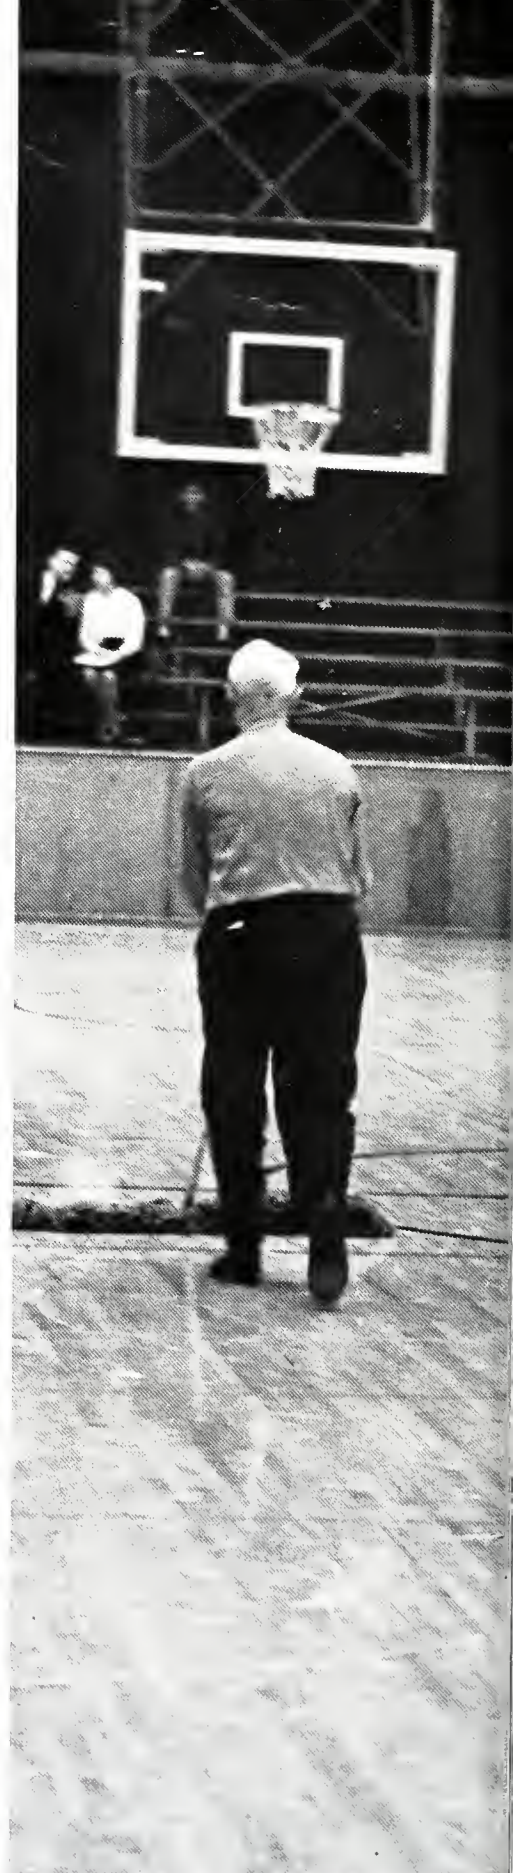

B-ball and GC clicked this year. Goshen held the best record in Indiana going into the eighth game. Then two quick losses followed by hysteria after victory over Anderson. The only mar— a late season discovery of ineligibility. Officially GC is 11–7. Everyone knows the record is 16–2.

Cooch Gingerich and Bob Cross

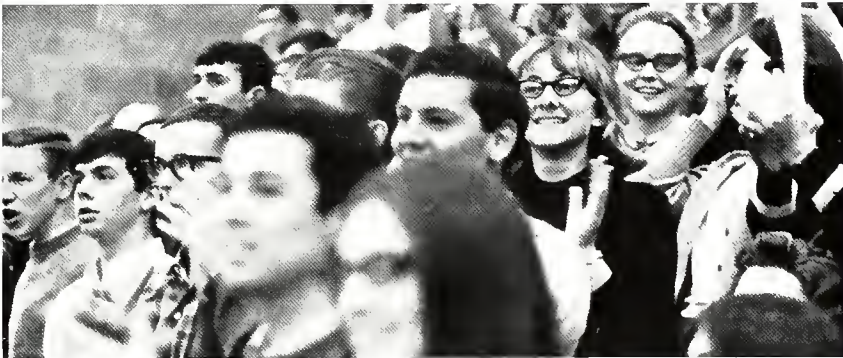

Vicki Reidenbach

Keith Springer

G-O-S-H-E-N, Goshen, Goshen, Goshen—
a primitive incantation perhaps but effective.

And in case the deities weren't listening, we added a brass bond.

And for the solemn and traditional gods—
our Alma Mater.

In this business you need everything going for you.

Tom Noe

Bob Cross

Tip-off, we get it.
 Into the corner, computer-like.
 Swish shot and we're ahead.
 Surgically blocked shot—
 ours again. Neat pass. Lay-up.
 The crowd can't get enough
 even with big leads.
 We yell away tensions and Pious damns the refs.
 The only suspense
 is wondering if we'll
 hit the century mark.
 The game ends
 and another team
 has buckled under.

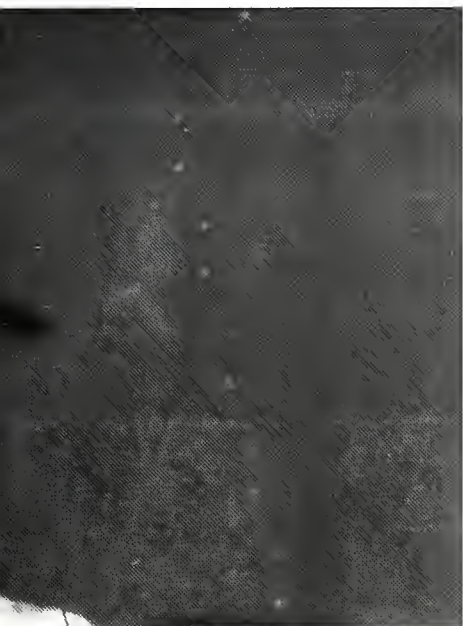

John Breneman

Dave Shenk

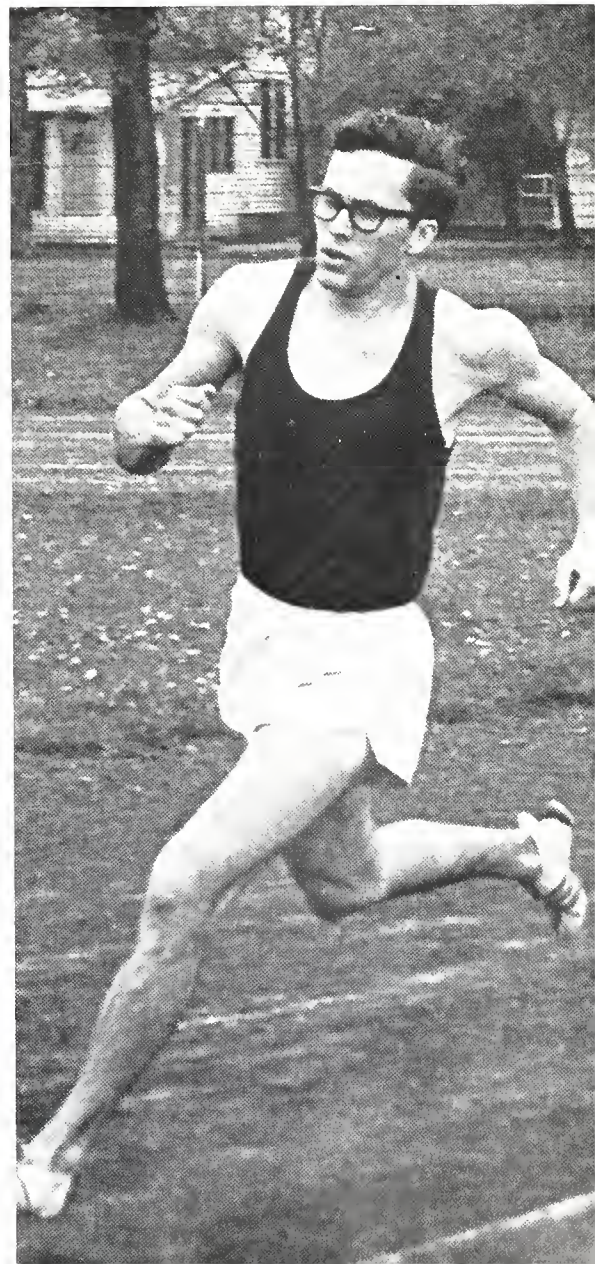

For the student
bored with solitaire Goshen offered
alternatives.
Many got their kicks
from knocking themselves out playing basketball
or volleyball
or ping pong
or hand ball.
Achievement
was measured
in the tournaments—
the big chance
to be shuffleboard
champion of Goshen College.

8:02 . . . they'll be starting soon.
 Funny-looking props.
 Say, there's Virg Roth.
 "I don't approve of bachelors
 and I'll find a wife for you."
 "That's very kind, but I'd rather arrange that for myself."
 "Nonsense."
 Intermission . . . what do you think?
 Well, it's, uh, quite good.
 "But don't you know? Oh I say!"
 I can't believe that guy!
 "Undershaft, you know you're mad."
 "And you?"
 "As mad as a hatter . . ."
 "Poverty is the worst of crimes."
 "Bring me the poor—I'll save them with 18 shillings a week."
 11:00 . . . man, this seat is hard.
 "Power for good is power for evil."
 "Life lies in the factory of death."
 Finished at last.
 Isn't Shaw's position a little . . .
 Goshen College tried on Drama.
 It fit—sort of.

James and Virginia Mininger,

but back with a new offering.
They came home
to spoof us with “A mighty fortress is our church:
A bulwark never failing,
cha cha cha” and “I want you to use me, Oh Lord,
But NOT just now . . .”
For heaven’s sake!

Orchestra Concert

The search for excellence
pushes aside traditions
and maintains them.
It gives birth to desire, planning development of unexplored ground.
It re-enforces the best.
They explored.
They re-enforced.
Recitals and concerts.

Steve Kreider—Backdoormen

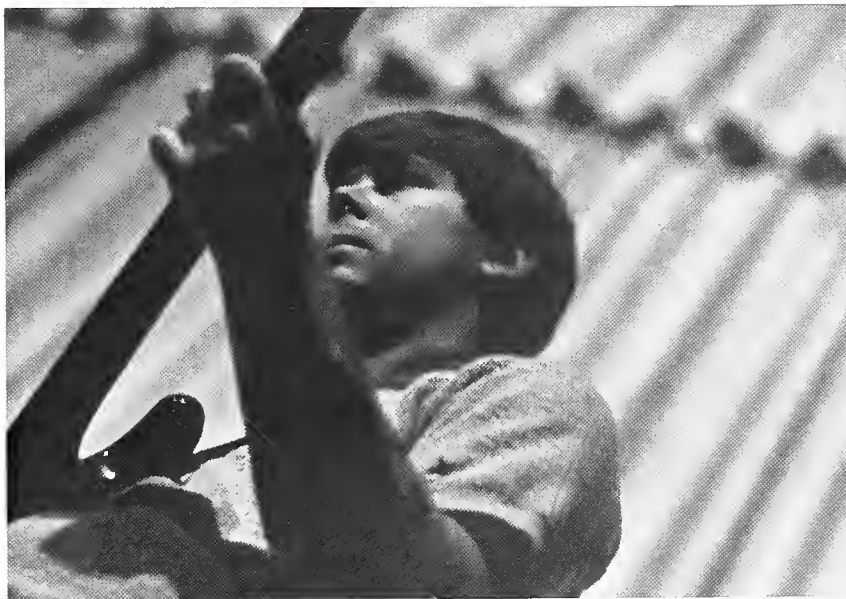

The New Rising

Take a Saturday night,
add a dark, archaic assembly hall
with just two ruddy spotlights,
fill it with a muggy hotness
caused by 500 mumbling,
shuffling GC students,
and infuse completely
with electric expectation.
Result: a student concert.
The sound's the thing:
psychedelic sounds of the Backdoormen, folksy, sunshine sounds of
the New Rising,
and cool, cool sounds of the D. Schertz trio.
GC applauds approval.

Sociality:

 Sociality:

 Opps! Sorry . . .
 Sociality:

 at Open House
 in quest of . . .
 Sociality:
 entertainment
 by campus women,
 with Virg Rath and Linda Hertzler
 "You are sixteen going on . . ."
 by satirical sophomores
 on campus sex,
 campus vice,
 and campus sociality.

Interaction and the creation of a fuller personhood are the inevitable components of student life. It is here that students of different ideas, abilities, and textures, confront one another and share experiences. Their task is to understand and appreciate the other for what he is, and simultaneously learn from him responsibility. It is from this context that the student goes forth better equipped to fulfill the Goshen College motto—

MILES WORLDWIDE

— and it all began in Elkhart, Indiana

It could have happened elsewhere . . . but folks around Elkhart are mighty glad it didn't. Some 2,000 employees and a prosperous city are happy that Elkhart is home for Miles. Founded before the turn of the century, in 1884, the growth of Miles Laboratories is an aggressively American story. There is no claim toward being unique in this successful effort, but there is extreme pride in being among those great American firms that have grown vigorously in this century. To be sure — Miles is Hoosier at home, but now WORLDWIDE in production and research and people. Look at Miles and its divisions today: Eighteen plants throughout this country and abroad. Almost 3,000 employees in the United States, more than 1,300 beyond. The products that come from this widespread effort suggest a wise diversity. Much of Miles' production is found in pharmaceuticals, but continuing growth is revealed in chemicals, while a broadening area is shown in laboratory equipment and supplies and electronic instruments. Surely, whether it is in Cuernavaca, Haifa, or São Paulo, it is exciting to recall — that it all began in Elkhart, Indiana.
